

LIMKOKWING UNIVERSITY WORLD'S MOST CREATIVE

For over 20 years, Limkokwing University has been championing Creativity and Innovation as the two most important skills of the future. From inception, it has been the heartbeat of our DNA. Our commitment to talent development has enabled our students to do internships with some of the world's most famous and innovative global brands like Apple and Microsoft, so they stand out from the rest.

300 global awards for creativity & innovation

Our creative and innovative ecosystem has been recognised with global awards from top businesses and academia from the US, UK and Asia. We have been officially recognised as University of Transformation by the Government and University of Innovation by Malaysia's Ministry of Higher Education. In 2013, the UK-based QS World Rankings named Limkokwing the University of the Future.

Leading on social media

Limkokwing University's meteoric rise on social media is a testament of the popularity of the University among young people worldwide. We have overtaken top universities such as Harvard, Stanford, MIT, Cambridge and Oxford to attain the top spots on Facebook and Twitter. Our website, designed and maintained by alumni gets over 624 million hits a year from 225 countries and territories, making this one of the most popular university websites in the world.

The world in one place

We have 30,000 students from 165 countries studying at our 13 campuses in Asia, the UK and Africa. At the campus in Cyberjaya, Malaysia, students come from 160 countries making this truly a global campus. Students can opt to do their studies at any of our other branch campuses for international work experience which will be priceless for future career and business opportunities for them.
